(B) Associate Teacher Comments:

Strengths	Areas of Improvement
Miss Park comes to school early and is prepared for her day of learning. She does not leave school until all components of her lessons are set out and ready for the next day. Miss Park taught and planned a measurement unit in collaboration with her associate teacher. She then taught and planned a coding unit on her own. During her coding unit, she planned very exciting lessons and was able to keep the attention of grade 1 students. Miss Park used coding robots, ipad coding programs, and fun engaging games to hook the interest of all students. She has a calming and positive personality which students quickly felt comfortable with and were drawn to.	Miss Park was a great help in the classroom. She was willing to help out with any aspect of teaching. Throughout this placement her confidence continued to grow. She quickly understood how to answer questions that students may have that do not relate to lessons (e.g., friend issues, bathroom issues). Miss Park will need to continue to work on using a louder voice so that all students listen when she is speaking. She will need to continue to work on her classroom management skills (e.g., giving consequences to unwise behaviour) while teaching a lesson at the same time.
